Stories & Connections

Developed by Dr. Chris Cavert – FUNdoing.com

Get five in a row (Down, Across, Diagonal) with any combination of Stories and completed Connections. Stories: (White Boxes) Find someone to tell you, or tell, a story about the prompt, then have the person sign the box. It's okay to ask questions – conversate. Connections: (Dark Boxes) "X" out when completed. When you get a five in a row, yell, "FANTASTIC." Then, keep going for another five until time is called.

Find a story about sailing.	Tell someone that looks at you a story about a game.	Tell OR Find a story about a puzzle.	Look 3 different people in the eyes and say, "This is silly, but it's fine with me!"	Find someone to tell you a story about an aquatic animal.
Tell OR Find a story about school.	Complement four different people.	Find a story about building something.	Find someone with a horse story.	Tell someone a good memory you have kept.
Find a story about a National Park.	Find someone to tell you about clothes.	Tell someone a story about where you live.	Find OR Tell a story about cooking.	Find someone with a camp story.
Find someone with a story about their grandparents.	Tell 2 people, at the same time, a story about food.	Find 2 people you have the same thing in common with.	Find a story about salad.	Find a story involving a stadium.
Ask 3 people to tell you the story of their name.	Find someone to tell you a story about a fish.	Tell a story of something that makes you smile.	Find a water story.	Find a story about art.
Tell someone a story about a trip.	Find a scar story.	Find a childhood Story.	Tell OR Find a story about shoes.	Fist bump 8 different people – say "Hello" to each one.

Inspired by Bruce Williamson's Back to Nurture Bingo, in Playful Activities for Powerful Presentations (1993)